

IT TAKES THE WHOLE WORLD

TO KNOW THE WHOLE GOSPEL

The Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina's Chartered Committee on Global Mission

invites you to

The 3rd Annual Global Mission Gathering

September 16th, 2023

St. Mary's Episcopal Church
108 W. Farris Ave
High Point, NC 27262

Registration: 9:30 a.m.
Program: 10:00 a.m. to 4:15 p.m.

Friendship and worship have no boundaries. Spend the day discussing practical ways to form global friendships and to learn how our global neighbors proclaim the gospel. All are welcome!

Keynote speakers:

- The Rt. Rev. Todd McGregor retired bishop and former missionary to Madagascar and Kenya, now a Missions coach, discipler, and mentor with Society of Anglican Missionaries and Senders (SAMS).
- Missionary Cameron Graham Vivanco serves with SAMS in Ecuador. Her focus there is on youth, through education and leadership development.

With Holy Eucharist at 3:30 p.m. where the Rt. Rev. Sam Rodman will celebrate

- ❖ Discover ways for our congregations to show our love for God by building global relationships through short-term missions, virtual missions, pilgrimages, and joint creation care work, not only with our Companion Links in Botswana and Costa Rica, but elsewhere.
- ❖ Discuss ways of engaging in relational ministry with global partners to combat climate change; to care for God's creation; ways to respond during a pandemic, famine, war and to stand in solidarity with global partners in crisis.

There is no cost to attend. Lunch will be provided and donations will be gratefully appreciated.

Register

Join us and experience fresh ways of Global Mission
For Information contact: Dr. Dora Mbuwayesango - dmbuwa@yahoo.com